

2012 Street Parade Categories:

History in the Making the 50's:

Float must have a historical theme to celebrate 50 years of Windjammer Days, 50 years of Chamber and 50 years of fun.

Maritime Madness:

Float must have a nautical theme. Ship, sailors, lighthouses, mermaids, you name it.

Going Green:

Float must be constructed out of recycled materials or natural materials. They can promote the idea of recycling, show the natural beauty of mother earth's products, or be any theme made out of recycled or natural products.

Red, White and Blue:

Floats must have a patriotic theme. The colors Red, White and Blue must be widely displayed within your float. However, the idea of this float is NOT a political agenda. No floats will be allowed if they are degrading to any particular government party or any politician.

Break a Leg:

Floats must have an entertainment theme. This could be bands, dancers, singers, and your float must have decorations.
